THEY OBJECT TO THE SMOKE

COMPLAINT MADE TO BOARD OF HEALTH ABOUT ROUND HOUSE.

Residents of the Fourth Ward Object to the Smoke and Gases—Claim They Are Dangerous to Health—Communication From Rochester Humane Society.

The Fourth ward was largely represented at the regular June meeting of the board of health yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Manning, Fleischer, McNeil and Blake were present, and Commissioner Fleischer presided. The residents of the Fourth ward were present to expostulate against the issuance of smoke and gases of a noxious and dangerous nature from the round house of the Consolidated railroad.

The residents of the ward presented a petition to the board calling attention to the existing state of affairs. The claim was made by those who appeared to favor the petition that the condition was dangerous to the health of the community and immediate action should be taken. After considerable discussion it was voted to refer the matter to a committee of two of which the health officer shall be one, to inquire into the matter and report to the next meeting of the board. The second member of the committee is Commissioner Manning.

The petition in full is as follows: "We, the undersigned residents and property owners on Hallock, Howard and Greenwich avenues and Lambert street, and other streets in the Fourth ward, respectfully represent that at the present time and for some time previous we have been annoyed, afflicted and the health of ourselves and our families been injured and endangered by large quantities of suffocating smoke and noxious gases that have been produced by and permitted to escape from the round house of the Consolidated railroad situated at the junction of Cedar street and Hallock avenue. We therefore pray your honorable body to investigate this nuisance as to you may seem best calculated to abate this nuisance and to relieve us from the annoyance, abuses and danger to which we are now exposed."

This petition is signed by Henry Friesenius, A. J. Strickland, Francis Orr, Luzerne I. Thomas, Jeremiah Smith & Sons, Smith Bros., G. Greiner, E. Clark, R. W. Mills, Richard W. Law, and twenty-five other residents and taxpayers of the streets in question. The following communication was also received, and after considerable discussion it was decided to accept the communication and to co-operate with the humane society in so far as the jurisdiction of the board of health extended. State of New York, County of Monroe, City of Rochester, ss.

Frederick W. Weitzel, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the duly authorized agent of the Rochester Humane society, animal department; that on the 4th day of May, 1895, between the hours of 2:30 a. m. and 7:40 p. m., while he was in the village of Palmyra, Wayne county, New York, at the New York Central freight house, there were 123 calves left there for shipment with no shelter from the action of the elements and without food or water.

That said calves were loaded into a double decked New York Central freight car, No. 46,443, at 5:50 a. m. May 4, 1895; that said calves remained in said car until 8:30 p. m., before leaving Palmyra; that they were consigned to Lee & Hoyt of New Haven, Conn., by Tassel & Breeze, consignors; that as deponent is informed and believes said calves arrived at West Albany at 1:10 p. m. May 5, 1895, and left West Albany yard at 1:35 p. m. on the Boston and Albany railroad and arrived at New Haven, Conn., Monday, May 6, 1895, at 10:30 a. m., and were not unloaded until 5:45 p. m. of that day, making a total detention without food or water of over seventy hours; that the seal of said car was unbroken upon its arrival at New Haven, Conn.

That the source of deponent's knowledge as to all matters stated upon information was gained from C. E. Miller, secretary of the Connecticut Humane society, and Dr. William O. Stillman, president of the Mohawk and Hudson River Humane society at Albany, N. Y.

Deponent further states that the sale and consumption of such calves as veal is dangerous and detrimental to the public health, and that the treatment they are thus subjected to is in violation of section 655 of the penal code. Wherefore, Deponent respectfully requests that your honorable board co-operate with the humane societies and take immediate action towards suppressing this cruel and inhuman manner of transporting animals.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 31st day of May, 1895. FREDERICK W. WEITZEL, WILLIS K. GILLETTE, Commissioners of Deeds.

After the usual routine business had been transacted, a number of cesspools and other nuisances ordered abolished, the board adjourned.

THEY OBJECT TO THE SMOKE

The announcement of the four successful speakers for June 21 is made. The committee on special instruction, with Superintendent Curtis and a committee of high school teachers, met and passed judgment upon the competitive essays. There were eight who read: Miss Florence Bright, Miss Marie J. Dillon, Miss Harriet H. Hubbell, Miss Grace Beech, Miss Grace Johnson, Frederick B. Merrells, A. H. Butler and William B. Starkweather. All the essays were exceedingly good and it was rather a difficult matter to decide. At length however, the following four were selected: William J. Starkweather, whose essay is upon "The Statute," Florence J. Bright, whose subject was "Scenes from the Life of John Brown," so very similar to another subject which she has been asked to write upon; Miss Grace Johnson, whose essay is on "Harper's Ferry and the Man Who Made it Famous," and Fred Merrells, who will read an essay on "The Best is Yet to be—The Last of Life for Which the First Was Made."

Two Brakemen Injured. William Masey, a brakeman on the Northampton division of the Consolidated road, broke his leg while jumping from a freight car at Plainville yesterday and was brought to this city and taken to the hospital. Shortly after Masey was admitted Fred Lee of East Hartford, a brakeman on the New York division, was brought to the hospital also suffering with a broken leg, caused by a fall from a freight train near Greenwich. Both men's legs were broken in the same place, below the knee.

Shot Dead on the Street. Baltimore, June 11.—P. T. Bowers, a clerk in the postoffice, met William Green in front of Taylor's ice cream saloon this morning and charged him with the betrayal of his (Bowers') daughter. Hot words passed between the men, ending with the demand that Green marry the girl. Upon his refusal Bowers pulled a revolver and shot Green dead. Bowers was arrested.

THE AEOLIAN.

This wonderful instrument will be exhibited and played daily at our warerooms to all who do us the favor to call. The Aeolian has the appearance of an upright piano, and the tone and volume of an orchestra. Anyone can learn to play it with a few days' practice, and can then render any piece of music ever composed, not mechanically, but as Jean de Reske, the famous singer, states: "With musical taste and sentiment."

Statue of Luther Unveiled.

Berlin, June 11.—The statue to Martin Luther, which has been a long time in course of construction and erection, was unveiled in the Neumarkt to-day. Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia, uncle of the Kaiser, was present as the emperor's representative and delivered an address. Chancellor Hohenlohe and most of the members of the ministry, together with the municipal and other authorities, were in attendance and took part in the procession which marched around the monument. The church bells were rung in honor of the occasion and various choral societies sang the Luther hymn.
